NOTES AND PRECIS.

y. No. 74 !

(under subsection (1) of sec. 59 of the Prisoners Act, 1900, the Governor General in Council may by General or Special Order provide for the removal of any prisoner confined in a prison to any other prison in British India. The Governor General in Council has issued General orders under this provision. Under Order II of these General orders the Inspector General of Prisons, Madras, appears to have power to transfer, with the previous consent of the Inspector General of Prisons, the Punjab, a prisoner who is undergoing imprisonment in a Madras Jail to a Jail in the Punjab, if his detention in the Madras Jail is deemed inexpedient. Attention is also invited to para 3 and 6 of the Resolution of the Govt. of India in the Home Deptt.Nos.446-458, dated the 5th August 1904 with which the General orders were issued.

The I.G. of Prisons, Madras, may perhaps be informed that he may, under the order referred to in the previous para, transfer the prisoner to a Jail in the Punjab on his own responsibility if he considers the detention of the prisoner in a Jail in the Madras Presidency inexpedient, if merely they report the fact to this Residency for information. Draft submitted.

Office of the Inspector-General of Prisons,
Mount Road, Madras, dated the 1st August 1935.

From

Lieut-Col. K.M. Khan, I.M.S.,
ag. Inspector-General of Prisons.

To

The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore,

Sir,

Jails - Central Jail, Salem - Transfer of a Rajput B class prisoner No.5319, Bhool Singh to a Jail in the Punjab.

I have the honour to forward, herewith a copy of letter No. 2457-R-35, dated the 23rd July 1935 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Salem with its enclosures for information and necessary action. The prisoner was sentenced to death by the Sessions Judge, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, but subsequently it was commuted to transportation for life. He is now detained in the Central Jail, Salem.

Though the prisoner refused to take his food and was on hunger strike on many occasions, his conduct in jail of late is reported to be good. I have no objection to the transfer of the prisoner to a Jail in the Punjab.

Copy of letter No. 2457-R-35, dated the 23rd July 1935 from the Supdt., Central Jail, Salem.

I have the honour to bring to your notice that B class convict No. 5319, Bhool Singh has asked me to recommend his transfer to a Jail in the Punjab. I do not know if this is possible, but if it is I would strongly recommend it as he is an Ex-sepoy and a Rajput and the cooking methods of preparing food are considerably different to those to which he is accustomed. Nominal roll and copy of judgment are attached.
